QUOTE OF THE DAY

“I do not want art for a few, any more than education for a few, or freedom for a few.” – William Morris

“The pursuit of truth and beauty is a sphere of activity in which we are permitted to remain children all our lives.” – Albert Einstein

“A drawing is simply a line going for a walk.” – Paul Klee

“Creativity is not just for artists. It's for businesspeople looking for a new way to close a sale; it's for engineers trying to solve a problem; it's for parents who want their children to see the world in more than one way.” – Twyla Tharp

“Idealism increases in direct proportion to one's distance from the problem.” – John Galsworthy

“I knew, as everyone knows, that the easiest way to attract a crowd is to let it be known that at a given time and a given place someone is going to attempt something that in the event of failure will mean sudden death.” – Harry Houdini
